

Do you suffer from dry, itchy eyes? If your dry eyes are related to meibomian gland dysfunction, blepharitis, or environmental debris NuLids may be an option for you. NuLids has developed an oscillating, soft cleaner for your eyelids you can use at home. Think of it as an “electric toothbrush for your lids.” Combined with an antimicrobial agent, such as Zocular, you can stimulate the meibomian glands and clean the lids of debris and bacteria right in the comfort of your own home.
